International Catholic Movement for Peace

Pax Christi International Work Camp

 August 2009

Pax Christi Peace House - Florence (Italy)

What is it?

The camp is run by Pax Christi, an International Catholic Movement committed to peace, reconciliation and nonviolence. Activities will include:

- Practical work in the house, garden and orchard in the mornings
- Trips to Florence and Tuscany region including an 'Art and Peace' tour.
- Workshops and discussions on asylum seekers and refugees, Palestine and Israel, conflict, peace...
- Music, games and fun and much more!...

Who is it for?

The camp is for young people aged 18-30ish.

Where will I stay?

You will be staying at the Pax Christi Peace House in the hills near Florence, Italy. The accommodation will be in dormitory style rooms.

How much does it cost?

Only €100 - this includes accommodation, food and all activities, but not travel to and from the Peace House.

But I don't speak Italian!

The working language will be Italian, with English and German translation available.

How do I get there?

You need to book your own transport to and from Florence. The city is easily accessible from Pisa International Airport or you can get the overnight train from Paris.
